

Responsible,
Transparent, and
Policy-Aware AI
Use in FL
Teaching

Work Package 4 Module
1

Mentimeter

- Think of the last time you encountered AI in your professional life as an educator/student — knowingly or unknowingly. What happened? How did you feel?
- What does responsible AI use actually look like in an FL classroom — and who decides?

Mentimeter

- (1) How confident are you in your institution's AI policy?
- (2) Do you currently disclose AI use to your learners?
- (3) Have you ever felt uncertain about the ethics of an AI tool you used?

<https://artificialintelligenceact.eu/the-act/>

EU Artificial Intelligence Act

Summary of the EU AI Act risk-based approach

notebooklm.google.com

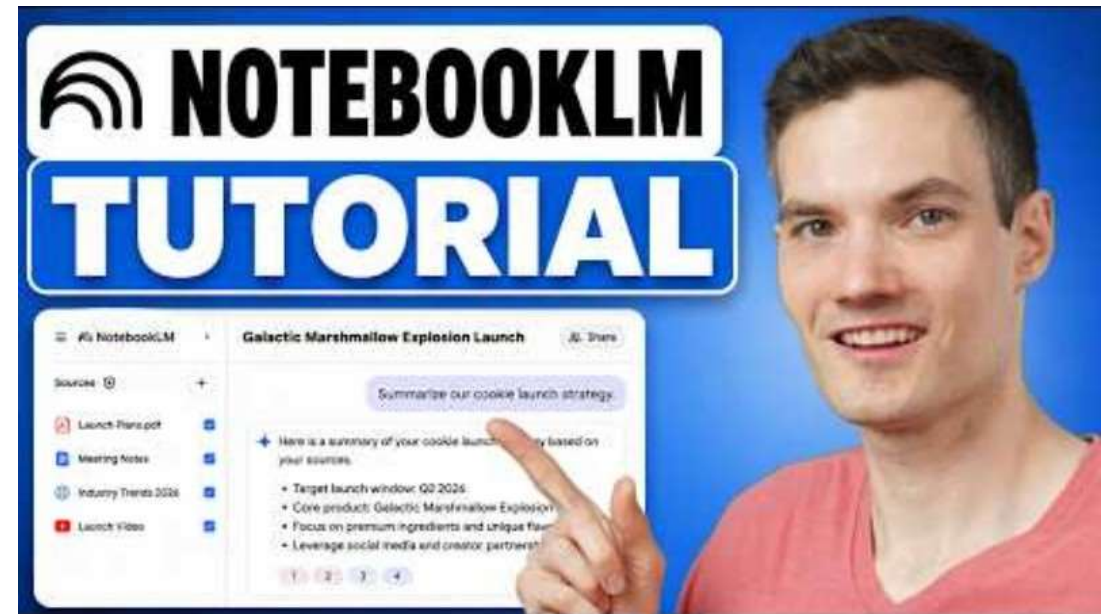

Part 1: Prohibited AI Practices
(Article 5)

Part 2: Transparency (Article 13)

Part 3: Transparency & Labeling
Requirements (Article 50)

Part 4: GPAI Provider Obligations
(Article 53)

- <https://euaiactguide.com/wp-content/uploads/2026/03/eu-ai-act-summary.pdf>

TASK 1 – VOCABULARY CARDS

- Use of Google Notebook LM (Gemini Notebook)
- Each group receives a different EU AI Act part/section.
- Using the Google Notebook LM (Gemini Notebook) each group develops:
 - ❖ Vocabulary cards
 - ❖ Word usage examples
 - ❖ Mini quiz questions
- Learners discuss similarities, differences and misconceptions.

TASK 2 - Summary Note-taking/Summary

- Use of Google Notebook LM (Gemini Notebook)
- Each group works with the same EU AI Act part/section as in Task 1.
- Using the Google Notebook LM (Gemini Notebook) each group generates:
 - ❖ Summary notes
 - ❖ Key takeaways
 - ❖ Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
- Learners compare: Original text VS. AI-generated summary

Mentimeter

- This summary is / is not relevant to my academic career because...

- <https://education.ec.europa.eu/focus-topics/digital-education/actions/plan/ethical-guidelines-for-educators-on-using-artificial-intelligence>

REFLECTION

- How does Notebook LLM support learning?
- What challenges emerged?
- How will you adapt this in teaching/learning?

QUESTIONNAIRE

THANK YOU!